MAY HAVE SUBSTANTIAL LANDING

Already the eagle eye of business is being covetously directed toward the locality bordering on the new way to the river at Third street, and it is safe to predict that by the time the street is completed, shipping interests will recognize the many great advantages and will make it a point of centralization.

Already one large firm is negotiating with goverment officials for privileges to erect a siding or pier for the convenient landing and shipping by water, of all kinds of lumber and buildings material. This of course will naturally be constructed so as to not interfere with the landing and the getting in and out of large or small river craft.

The definite plans have not just been settled upon. In case of interference in landing by the sand bar at that point a dock will be built, extending out into the river a sufficient distance to get proper channel depth, and strong enough to permit teams driving-out, loading or unloading and making the turn conveniently and safely.

This will supply a need which has long been felt in Monessen, and that badly. In fact its been a grave necessity from the day the town sold her "birthright," or road way to the river by way of Fifth street.

As an illustration, even today plain builders' sand is costing 10c a bushel when those who know say it should not be more than 3 cents, and other material and commodities are affected correspondingly. A river landing would bring to us, by water, at a much lower freight rate, sand, brick, cement, lumber, etc., as well as all kinds of goods—store goods from the largest crate to the smallest and most delicate package, just as safely as do the railroads, and usually more so.

We need the road to the river just as soon as it can be finished, and if necessary, a landing or shipping dock.

If any concern needs a private dock for business purposes, it'sall right, but Monessen wants anything that will give proper and convenient facilities for the landing of steamers, both for freight and passenger traffic.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Datz left last evening for Pittsburgh to attend the funeral of Mr. Datz's sister who died recently.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT THE MEETINGS

A large concourse of people wended their ways to the opera house last night to attend the evangelistic services which were of unusual interest throughout.

The Lord's Prayer was repeated by the Chorus, after which a number of selections were sung with Rev. J. E. Hughes of the Christian church as director.

Prayer was offered by Revs. Eveler and Wallace, followed by the scripture reading by Evangelist Porter, and prayer by Rev. Davies of the Methodist church.

Rev. McCormick of the Blair Presbyterian church was then introduced and talked very instructively on "A Fruitless Life and a Fruitful Death." His talk was most pointed and his illustrations very vivid and striking. He referred to four steps as being necessary to the development of personality, viz: "I am, I can, I ought and I will."

After Rev. McCormick's most interesting and impressive deliverance of the gospel truths as he saw and knew them, an earnest talk and appeal was made by Mr. Porter, with quite a number of ready responses

There is an amazing amount of good effective work being done in Monessen by the personal workers in a quiet way, and many are thinking as never before on the realities of their past and future lives. Many are thinking and a goodly number are acting.

Thursday afternoon, neighborhood prayer services will be at the following homes: Mrs. Scales, end of street car line. Mrs Fred Felder, Dutchtown. Mrs. Harvey Smith, 412 McKee avenue. Mrs. Fisher, 661 Reed avenue.

Everybody remember the meeting in the opera house this evening at 7:45.

KEISTER ANNOUNCES FOR CONGRESS

A. L. Keister, of Scottdale, has announced that he is a candidate for Congress to represent the twenty-second district, Westmoreland and Butler counties, on the Republican ticket.

Of Mr. Keister, one of his home papers has this to say: "Mr. Keister is a man of sterling character, well liked at home and abroad. He is president of the First National Bank of Scottdale and is also president of the Lincoln Coal and Coke company. He has also other business interests. He never entered a contest for political honors outside of local affairs. Mr. Keister's integrity, ability and popularity are unquestioned and he should be a strong candidate" 1t

HAYS MUSIC PEOPLE MAKE MANY FRIENDS

J. O. Bair, C. H. Wilt and Prof. North Fleeson who have been with the E. G. Hays piano company left today for Pittsburg after a two weeks' business stay in Monessen. The boys made many friends while here and the concern they represent did an excellent business through their enterprising efforts and their honest methods of dealing with the people.

ORATORY AND PATRIOTISM CHARACTERIZE THE CIVIC LEAGUE'S ANNUAL BANQUET

Last night the Civic League of Belle Vernon held their third annual banquet in the dining room of the Birmingham hotel. It was one of the nicest patriotic affairs ever held by any organization in this section. Good cheer and whole-souled hospitality were spread in abundance from the hour of 8 o'clock until after midnight and then people were tardy to depart. It was an elbow to elbow affair and love and good fellowship were co-mixed and co-mingled during the entire evening and every fellow present went home feeling better for having been there. Seventy-five covers were laid for a spread that was most creditable to the management of the hotel as well as the League. The room was decorated in an appropriate manner and when the guests sat down there was a picture the like of which was never excelled in Belle Vernon. After the dinner and when the cigars had been passed, the League quartette and the band started the preliminaries which were to lead up to a patriotic as well as an oratorical feast. An original song dedicated to the Civic League was sung with the air of "Dixie." It dealt in a humorous way with the town and its people and brought forth encore after encore. Verses were added complimentary to the visiting guests and the thing simply "brought down the house." While the authors name was withheld the effort was complimentary. Johnny Jenkins of Charleroi gave an imitation of "Munky at ball game" and his impersonation of the character and the game was well received. John had them coming his way but handed them over without a response to the enthusiams he had created. E. L. Sears was the toast master and he handled the place with credit and distinction. Mr. Sears is one of the town's most earnest workers and his honored place last night was a fitting recognition of his labors as president during the past year.

Frank I. Gosser of Pittsburgh was the orator of the evening and he talked for thirty minutes and there was not an uneasy moment The speaker gave a clear insight to civic work and backed his remarks by personal many experiences. Secretray Williams of the Greensburg Board of Trade was the next speaker and he told many of his experiences in the practical work and concluded with twelve reasons why there should be co-operation in the Civic League of Belle Vernon. Hon. E. E. Robbins of Greensburg who always has something good to offer was present. Mr. Robbins is always a welcome visitor in the valley and while he did not have a fixed speech he told of some early experiences in the development of the valley and told of meeting many of the older citizens who have passed away and classed the present day race as no less worthy the place in the tablets of memory. Mr. Robbins was received most rovally. J. W. Sears of Florida who is this week a guest of his brother, the toastmaster, responded to an appropriate introduction and made a fine speech. He told of the melting together of the North and South and of their union under one flag and his speech was really one of the interesting features of the evening. A number of other short speeches were made and the entertainment was dismissed with the best of feeling and all present have a pleasant occasion to remember.

The following guests were present from Monessen George Nash, U. S. Smiley, Jesse Hancock, John S. Duvall C. L. Schuck, H. R. Pore.

Star Theatre

The bill at the Star this part of the week is one of the best here for some time and includes The Clay Molder, George Wichman, a clever artist in his line, Irene Casedy, in character songs and dances, Gladstone and Vaughn in a first class singing and dancing act introducing a pianologue by Miss Gladstone, The Three Street Musicians, one of the best acts in that line ever seen here and light moving pictures close the show.

Hear the Blind Quartette

Monessen folk who enjoy a real first-class musical and literary treat should not forget the Bellfield Blind Quartette in St. Paul's Evanglical Lutheran chuch Eighth street, Friday evening. These people come most highly endorsed and a most pleasing entertainment is promised. Tickets are now on sale at Eddy's drug store. Don't miss it.

The Bijou

There is nothing more interesting than an entertaining moving picture and especially when the picture is pronounced by everyone who views it, to be one of the finest scenic exhibits they have ever seen. Extra expense has been incurred in the bringing of this film to the Bijou but Manager Cowan has determined to adhere to his regular prices and make no extra charge for this big feature by the well known Selig Co. Don't forget the time and place, today at the Bijou.

Dance in Might's Hall

To-morrow evening at Might's hall in Charleroi, the Winter Club will hold another of their regular weekly dances that have proven so popular since their innovation a few weeks ago. Every effort is put forth by the committee in charge to make the dances successful from every point of view. Excellent music is furnished, the hall possesses one of the finest dancing floors in this part of the valley, and as a special feature this week, a quartette will sing during the intermissions. There are also several other treats in store for those who attend tomorrow evening's affair.

MORNING FIRE IN THE TANZER BLOCK

The narrow escape of two families from suffocation and the loss of the stock of the Boston Store, entire value several thousands of dollars and owned by B. Weinberg, was the result of an early morning blaze in the storeroom of the Tanzer building, 422 Donner avenue. Shortly after 4 o'clock Mrs. Tanzer was awakened by the smell of smoke which had penetrated into their flat on the second floor. She woke the remaining members of the family and the family of Mathew Slattery on the third floor and all hurried to adjoining building in their night clothes for safety.

The origin of the blaze was not discovered until the flames had gained considerable headway and the stock of the store was either partially or entirely destroyed by the smoke and fire. The fire is said to have started from spontaneous combustion in some of the shelving on the side walls of the store. The insurance on the stock was carried by Keefer & Robbins and that on the building by Edmund Jeffries.

PROGRAMME FOR OLYMPIC THEATRE

The management of the Olympic theater announces that this afternoon and evening, tomorrow afternoon and evening and all day Friday and Saturday they will show some of the finest moving pictues on the market accompanied by one of the finest orchestras ever brought here. Admission will be but 5 cents everywhere, both balcony and downstairs.

On Friday and Saturday evenings, high class vaudeville will be shown and four of the best acts on the road are booked The courteous treatment and excellent shows presented are drawing large crowds to this popular playhouse, which is without doubt one of the most complete and up to date theaters of its kind outside of the larger cities. 1t

SHERIFF WINS OUT ON BIG LEGAL FIGHT

Five of the civil suits in which ex-Sheriff Shields sought to recover money from a number of the coal companies of Westmoreland county were called for trial yesterday morning. The attorneys for the coal companies moved for a non suit but they were moved back a notch by Judge McConnell and the cases went to a hearing. It was a hot legal battle. Attorneys Robbins, Wyant and Crowell represented Shields.

The suits are the outgrowth of the recent coal strike and were brought to recover money alleged to be due ex-Sheriff Shields for deputies furnished during the strike. The claims in the aggregate amount to between $13,000 and $14,000..

After the arguments the jury promptly returned a verdict in favor of Shields and gave judgment for the amounts together with costs against the coal companies.

All over Westmoreland county there is interest in the outcome of this contest which has involved so much of the court's time and has cost Sheriff Shields and his family no end of suffering.

The cases now pending before the Superior courts wherein Shields' attorneys appealed from the sentence of Judge McConnell in order to stay the prison sentence will be heard from next week, and it is the general belief that he will be granted a new trial.

Mr. Shields has many warm friends over the county who will be glad to learn of his victories against the big interests of the county

Speak Kindly in Time

In reviewing the large number of suicides that are occuring all about us we just stop and wonder, what can be the cause therefor. Not a day but one sees by reading the newspapers, stories of where one or more persons have died as a result of some self-administered agency, and while all are pitiable enough, some are surrounded by conditions almost unbelievable and heart rending in the extreme.

All this—each and every case—seems in our minds to be only another warning to all those who, either consciously or otherwise seem to lack proper consideration for the sensibilities of their fellowmen.

A man or a woman, or it may be a young woman, may take their own life. The friends naturally are deeply moved and put on a great show of affection, and no doubt in most cases it is sincere, but it comes too late, and no amount of impassioned eulogy or most heartfelt expressions of grief can benefit the unfortunate one.

However, during the life of the lamented one—before the heart became despondent and shattered, a single hand clasp or a word of encouragement or comfort might have gone a long way toward having averted the tragedy. Many and many a poor soul have relinquished their failing grasp on the slender thread of life and sank down, down, until with a wail of anguish they went beyond the reach or help of humanity into the awful unknown, and all possibly on account of the absence of a kind word or a helping hand.

A sane person is not willing to give up life unless he feels intensely alone and out of touch with his fellows, and if such a poor, miserable unfortunate could have heard just one little word of comfort from the lips of a friend, or even a small portion of the praise that is showered in his memory after the awful deed has been committed, it is safe to say that the life would have been saved.

The lavishment of extravagant praise and the shedding of oceans of tears in memory of the suicide is like pouring water on the sensitive plant after it has been withered by the burning rays of the mid-day sun.

A kind word, a hearty hand clasp and a God bless you, brother, at the right time, would do more toward shaping the destiny of a human being's life than all the tears, roses and eulogies of hypocritical friends when all is silent and it is too late. True charity is often dispensed in the most humble manner, and one can often most unthoughtedly make himself or herself a radiating source of untold good. We are all either the victims or favorites of circumstances, and the most favored of us should put out the helping hand to the more unfortunate one.

Don't wait until the unfortunate and despairing one has given up the fight for life and then heap useless commendations and praises over his or bier, but let us speak well of the living. Help the despondent wherever possible with a kind word, a grasp of the hand with a hearty truthful honesty about it that expresses sincerity— and do it in time—and many a good, active life will be saved from the wreckage of self destruction.

Still Room at Home

Spring is on its way, in fact it is almost here—and with its coming also comes the ever active and insistent land agent or salesman. They are everywhere busy, offering golden opportunities for home seekers, urging them to come West, North-west South and even to Cuba, and lo to the wheat growing acreage of Canada. Men are asking, urging, yes coaxing others to come out where the air is pure and where fortunes may be made in stock raising, farming, trucking or chicken raising, and many represent the orange growing lands of Florida and the cotton fields of Texas. Some agents draw the picture so delightfully luscious that one can almost taste the ripe, rich juicy strawberries to be raised, three crops a year. They have the map of the particular locality more particularly represented, most glowingly painted.

But what's the matter with good, old Pennsylvania? The state has never yet been over-boomed. So far as fruit growing, poultry raising and gardening is concerned, this state has never been farmed out. The market is all about us with teeming millions of people to consume all that can be raised on the farms or in the gardens. There are some localities still left where, with fair capital and earnest hard work, a man can establish himself and make a home and in a few years amass a comfortable competence. There are thousands of acres of ground which have been abandoned by heirs of estates who moved into cities to grow rich over night. This state has yet many opportunities favorable for the get-back-to-the-farm families, and of course these so-called abandoned lands will not at first present as many attractions as does the town or city flat, but they do have pure air, fresh water, and fine exhilarating sunshine. There will be no electric light and gas heat, next door neighbors and the like, but by going to work with a will, and having an honest pride in homelike improvements, in a few years one would not deign to exchange the comfortable country home in old Pennsylvania state for a palace within the city of luxuries.

SOUTHERNER LIKES OUR HUSTLING TOWN

Mr. J. W. Sears of Kissimmee Oceola county Florida started on his way home this morning after a brief visit with his brother E. L. Sears of Belle Vernon. Mr. Sears is a native of the state in which he now resides, having lived there for the past thirty years and this was his first real trip through the North. Yesterday in company with S. S. Jones and his brother a tour of inspection was made through the local tin mill and the Pittsburgh Steel and the sights were real eye openers for one living outside the great industrial section of the Monongahela valley. Mr. Sears saw what he had never before seen and he was wonderfully pleased with the knowledge and experiences obtained during his stay in Monessen. Mr. Sears is an educated and polished gentleman and now holds the position as public instructor of schools in his home town. He was a guest last night at the Civic League banquet at Belle Vernon, and was one of the leading speakers. He thoroughly enjoyed his visit among us and returns home with many pleasant memories, and those who had the pleasure of meeting the gentleman cannot help but profit by his abundance of humor and his pleasing manner. If he comes again he will receive a warm welcome by the many friends he made.

EVIDENTLY A HARD TASK

Somewhat Humorously Worded Epistle the Result of Struggle With English Language.

As the most delightful example she has ever seen of the English the European uses in his correspondence, a woman who has just returned from "the other side" is showing her friends a letter that she declares to be her most interesting "souvenir."

"After we left Amsterdam," she explains, "my daughter discovered that she had left her cuff-links in our room at the pension. So I wrote back to the proprietress, whom I knew spoke English, asking her to look for them. Here is the reply."

Then she shows it. And this, word for word, is how it reads:

"Dear Mrs. Thomas Grant:

"Immediately upon receiving your lettre I am going at once to looking in every drawer, and found this two button in the table near her bed. Can it be this two things what your daughter lost?

"In that way I am very glad to found it.

"So not be so good to send it me back, for it might be of another person who perhaps will write me he lost something."

WAY TO GAIN FLESH

There is only one way for thin weak persons to gain flesh and strength and that is to eat and digest more food.

"But that's just the trouble," says one. "I don't want to eat at all and the doctors say it does more harm than good to eat what I don't want."

That is true The thing to do is to get an appetite and good digestion. Miss Henrietta Huber, of the Bronx, N. Y., says on this subject: "I was very weak and had been for several months, so I thought I ought to take Vinol to gain strength. Since taking Vinol I have gained over 15 pounds in weight and my appetite is good. Now I am as strong as ever."

This is a remarkable case, but there are thousands of others, proving that our delicious cod liver and iron remedy, Vinol, is a certain body builder and strength creator. If you are weak and thin, you should by all means give yourself the benefit of Vinol for it will build you up and make you strong. We guarantee it to do this. Hirsch Drug Co., Monessen, Pa.

NO CAUSE TO DOUBT

A Statement of Facts Backed by a Strong Guarantee

We guarantee immediate and positive relief to all sufferers from constipation. In every case where our remedy fails to do this we will return the money paid us for it. That's a frank statement of facts, and we want you to substantiate them at our risk.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten just like candy, are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time, day or night; do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, griping, excessive looseness, or other undesirable effects They have a very mild but positive action upon the organs with which they come in contact, apparently acting as a regulative tonic upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel, thus over-coming weakness, and aiding to restore the bowels to more vigorous and healthy activity.

Rexall Orderlies are unsurpassable and ideal for the use of children, old folks and delicate persons. We cannot too highly recommend them to all sufferers from any form of constipation and its attendant evils. That's why we back our faith in them with our promise of money back if they do not give entire satisfaction. Three sizes: 12 tablets 10 cents, 36 tablets 25 cents and 80 tablets 50 cents. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Monessen only at our store,—The Rexall Store. Craig's Drug Store.

SCHOOLS TO OBSERVE WASHINGTON'S DAY

Tomorrow, as all are aware, will be the anniversary of the birth of our first president, George Washington, and the day observed all over the land as a national holiday, should not be over-looked by the people of Monessen, and everything possible should be done in order to inculcate into the minds of the class of people who have been on our shores but a few years, and some even a less time than a year, a spirit of true patriotism, and give them a knowledge of who George Washington was, what he was, and what he done for the country in which they live. This can be done in various ways.

Through our public schools our children and the children of the emigrant or foreigner as well are being taught the meaning of the day, and through them the spirit of the times of Wshington can be carried into the homes of every class.

Tomorrow will be a great day in Monessen's schools, as it will be all over the county, state and nation, and every parent should recognize it a duty to aid in making the day as impressive among the young as is possible.

Profs. Gress, Lyons and Blackburn, along with their able and willing corps of assistants, have worked hard to prepare the students in every department and grade for proper observance of Washington's birthday, and a most impressive and fitting program is in readiness. The exercises in grades one, two and three will be from 2:30 until 3:30, and in the other grades from 3:00 until 4 o'clock. Patriotic readings, recitations and songs, with some plain, practical talks along the right line of thought will be worthy the presence of every citizen who has an interest in our home land and the coming generation.

Students of our schools are much interested in the work of the day and will do all in their power to carry out their program as it should be.

Friday will also be observed as Patrons' Day and none should disremember it.

DEATH RECORD

DIED—Mary, the 15 months old daughter of Metro Nesto died this morning at the home of its parents in McMahan borough of diphtheria. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock and interment will be made in Grandview cemetery.

A New Basketball Team

The Christian Sunday School Class has organized a basket ball team and although a little late in starting this year, the boys expect to get in the field for a few games at least, so as to be in good shape for an early start next fall.

Edgar Martz has been elected to captain the team and arrangements are under way for a game with a team from Donora for Friday evening. The boys have secured the basement of the Christian church for their practicing and have fitted it up with all the necessary paraphernalia. Practises are held every evening and a good showing is expected when the team lines up for the first time on Friday.

Back Gives Out

Plenty of Monessen Readers Have This Experience.

You tax he kidneys—overwork them—

They can't keep up the continual strain.

The back gives out— aches and pains;

Urinary troubles set in. Don't wait longer—take Doans Kidney Pills.

Monessen people tell you how they act.

Mrs F. W. Schadwald, 634 Reed avenue, Monessen, Pa., says: "I know that Doan's Kidney Pills are a good kidney medicine for they have been used by my relatives and have proven of the greatest benefit. About two years ago I began to suffer from a pain in my back and being told that I had kidney trouble, I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at the Hirsch Drug Co. They helped me from the first and before I had taken them long the pains and other difficulties had been removed. Doan's Kidney Pills certainly live up to the claims made for them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States

Remember the name—Doan's and take no other
